Fairfield County Awake-Immense Enthu siasm. Special Disputch to The N. Y. Tribune.

BRIDGEPORT, Thursday, Oct. 27, 1834. The most magnificent political celebration ever known in the State of Connecticut was held to day in this city. It was expected to be a grand affair, bot it has exceeded all our expectations. "Old Glory" telhands of earnest men and fair women. It has been great gala day for the supporters of " Honest Abe."

The decorations exceed anything of the kind ever before witnessed. The Sterling Hotel was decorated procession was some five miles long. New Haves, Norwalk, New-Canaan, Stamford, Darles, Newtown, and nearly every town in the county was represented-ELIAN HOWE, Jr., raised the tallest liberty pole in New-England. He was bound to get the Stars and Stripes as near heaven as he could. To night his immense factory is illuminated from top to bottom. It is a splendid sight.

Hon, Lewis B. Campbell, and Hon. HERRY J. RAY-NOWD made two powerful and impressive speeches, To night Franklin Hall is crowded to overflowing. Gen. O. S. FERRY and Gov. E. W.
